Bloomsbury Publishing PLC, United Kingdom, 2003. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 199 x 129 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An outrageously funny satire on modern politics, New Labour and the fine art of spin Alistair Beaton s hilarious play, part farce, part biting satire, is set in the plush seaside hotel of a party conference. As anti-capitalist riots rage in the streets below, sinister and obsessive press secretary Eddie and young speech-writing aide Paul are trying to finalise the PM s conference speech. But Eddie s manipulative skills are to be tested far more by the scandal that George, dim-witted lord and close friend of the PM, gradually reveals - not helped by the arrival of Eddie s ex-wife and investigative journalist, Liz. Left me sobbing with laughter (The Times) Alistair Beaton rediscovers and restores the lost art of political satire in this hilariously timely portrait of new Labour fibbing and deceiving (Benedict Nightingale, The Times) Political satire was joyfully restored to the stage last night .A satirical treat to savour (Nicholas de Jongh, Evening Standard).
