Who was he? I have consulted the various records, and talked with the oldest inhabitant, and this is what I have learned. Years ago in Middletown, Conn., there lived an aged colored man; he was very short and thick-set, very black, with sooty wool, which long manipulation had converted into pipe-stem curls, which waved about his face in the most comical way imaginable. He had been a servant of General Washington. At first as a little boy, holding the Generals horse, then waiter - for many long stories he could tell of the fine dinners and grand company in Massa Washington s mansion. Later on, a drummer in the war, presumably the War of the Revolution. At any rate, he had a pension, which Massa B.
