Roscoe Conkling: The Statesman, Orator, and Jurist, and the Advocate of Freedom Humanity Justice Equal Rights 1. The Great Battle - Freedom vs. Slavery - Democratic Government vs. The Foes of Freedom and Equality. If, besides being powerful, a people has set up institutions in which no trace of aristocracy or kingcraft is tolerated, it has voluntarily elected to make its own soil the theater of a contest which has been waging since time began between oppression and liberty. It is the mission and foreordained destiny of a people assuming to found and maintain a democratic government, to wrestle and grapple with the foes of freedom and equality within and without; and the struggle now raging in America is only the old battle for human rights transplanted from the Old World to the New. - (Speech of Roscoe Conkling, at mass-meeting in Union Square, N. Y., April 11, 1863.) In this grand battle for human rights - of liberty against oppression, of democratic government against the foes of freedom and equality - no champion has borne a more brilliant or distinguished part than Roscoe Conkling - none whose battle has been waged with greater ability or power, or crowned with grander victories for the victims of tyranny. 2. Thirty-sixth Congress - The Beginning of the Rebellion. Mr. Conkling entered Congress - the House of Representatives - in December, 1859. The Republic was in the presence of an alarming crisis - menaced by a great peril. Oligarchal turbulence had festered into rebellion.
