As the newest and youngest member of the Kings Guard, Sir Noble Heart has excelled in his training and come to love his new way of life in the peaceful kingdom. It comes as a shock to all one day when news suddenly arrives in Caernarfon that an army is marching toward them to make war. King Stephen refuses to believe his old friend the Duke of Conwy would turn against him and, despite his councils warnings, he delays taking action in order to find out the truth of the matter. Knowing no one would ever suspect a lad as young as he to be a spy, Noble volunteers to meet the advancing army and look for answers. Noble has gained the respect of both king and kingsmen, and consequently is sent to discover who is actually behind the coming assault and why. Noble sets out for Conwy with his friend, the kings stable boy, Jamie. Posing as simple peasant boys out for a hunt, it does not take them long to encounter the army and...
