Excerpt: .since 1900 has had no market for her cattle. In the past she depended on Guatemala, but financial conditions in that Republic have closed the market. If an opening for the cattle of Honduras could be secured, her importations would increase at least 50 per cent. Consul VV. E. ALGER writes from Puerto Cortez, September 1, 1902, that United States manufacturers of electric supplies and of material for Waterworks may find an opening to sell their goods to the industrial company recently organized at Ceiba. The capital of this company (about $10,000) is entirely paid in, and as much more money as may be necessary will, it is said, be subscribed. The Government of Honduras has decided to have its postage stamps and postal cards engraved abroad this year, and the work is to be done in the United States. It has also arranged...
