I remember to have heard it said, on the election of one of your pupils to an University Scholarship at Oxford, that he was longe primus; no one, I think, will deny the just title of longe longeque primus to the individual who has produced the three first men at an examination of upwards of fifty candidates for an University Scholarship, a circumstance unparalleled in either University. Your account of the effect which the result of the election at Corpus has had on the school I have read with deep concern. It is too...
