The Howard University team scored a total of 6,552 against 7,662 for the winners of the competition. Twenty-nine students were awarded commissions as second lieutenants of Infantry, Officers Reserve Corps, and four students under 21 years of age were awarded certificates of proficiency. THE EVENING CLASSES For 60 years Howard University has been doing some form of extension work. Our present evening academic work began January 4, 1921. It is of purely collegiate grade. Prior to that date the extension work of the university was more or less ungraded. This year 32 courses were given in the autumn quarter to 195 students; 32 courses in the winter quarter to 174 students, and 40 courses in the spring quarter to 170 students. In a total registration of 539, 293 were teachers, 95 were Government employees, and 151 were in private employment. The work of the evening classes is sustained on the same high level as the work of the regular day classes of the university. It is, moreover, fully self-supporting. Thus far the majority of students carry only one course. No students in the evening academic classes may register for more than two courses, a maximum of 10 hours a week. THE SUMMER SESSION Three hundred and thirty-two students from 27 States and four foreign countries attended the summer...
