Reviews

This publication will be worth purchasing. It really is written in simple terms instead of difficult to understand. It has been designed in an exceptionally simple way and is particularly only right after I finished reading this ebook in which basically modified me, alter the way I believe.

ATTEMPTS Made to open a TRADE to KHIEVA and BOKHARA I N M DCC X L. WITH A JOURNEY along the western coast os the C A S P I A.N, in i 7 4 6 C H A P. LU. Two British faStors in Russia attempt to open a new trade into indepen*dent Tartary; with the several adventures that befel them. AS I am now on my departure from Persia, I shall introduce the journals of some other travellers on the eastern and western coast of the Caspian, particularly as these gentlemen were personally known to me, and had a connexion with the affairs of the Russia company: to these I. shall join Mr. Van Mi Er Op s journal to Mesched. As these journals are not verbose, and their authority is good, they must afford some satisfaction to the curious. It may be observed, that half the pleasure in this kind of reading, is to compare the relation with the map, and render that an object of fense, which is otherwise abstracted. This method helps at least in fixing the idea of the thing related in a more permanent degree. Whilst Mr. Elton was using his endeavours for opening a trade over the Caspian sea, Mr. George Thompson and Mr. Reynold Hogg undertook to establish a commercial intercourse with Khieva, Bokhara, and and other parts of Tartary, of which they give the following account. On the 26th of February 1740,...
