Gentlemen: Your letter of the 20th of April, inviting me, on behalf of the officers and soldiers of the Northern District of the Department of the South, to deliver an eulogy upon our lamented Chief Magistrate, Abraham Lincoln, has been received. I know of no subject upon which human intelligence can be more justly and appropriately exercised than on portraying the virtues of that eminent victim of crime and venom. I propose to carry out your wishes on Saturday, the 6th of May, as the earliest hour which my engagements will permit.
