Tate Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 224 pages. Dimensions: 8.7in. x 5.8in. x 0.5in. There was a very thin book shoved in between two thick dictionaries. . . The amount of dust across the shelf from it was considerably thinner than all the other books. . . I traced my finger along the binding and pulled it slowly from the shelf. The thing was pretty much a regular notebook, except the pages were made of thick paper, and it had no lines. I opened the front cover and looked at the page. Three words were elegantly inscribed in small print at the bottom. Diary Thomas Homme After moving to Minnesota Emma Miller thinks that the worst of her problems are going to be trying to fit into a new school, and trying to get along with her new family life.
