In room 2200, Rayburn House Office Building, Hon. Harry L. Johnston (chairman of the subcommittee) presiding. Mr. Johnston. This afternoon we meet to discuss the very dire crisis in Angola. This beleaguered country has suffered from nearly 30 years of almost continuous civil war. In 1992, it appeared that peace would finally come to Angola. In September, elections were held which were deemed free and fair by international observers. Very soon thereafter, however, civil war was reignited, and now the short-lived peace is no more.
