Scott, esq. , his assistant and under his direction, appeared for the defense and protection of the interests of the United States. The court, upon the evidence and after considering the briefs and arguments of counsel on both sides, makes the following FINDINGS OF FACTS. I. It appears from the evidence that St. Pauls Episcopal Church, of Culpeper County, State of Virginia, as a church, was loyal to the Government of the United States during the war of the rebellion. II. During the war for the suppression of the rebellion, fall of 1863-64, the military forces of the United States, by proper authority, took possession of the church building of St. Pauls Church, of Culpeper County, State of Virginia, and used and occupied the same for military purposes; said building being totally destroyed on account of such use and occupation. The reasonable value of said church building at the time was the sum of seven hundred dollars (700). No payment appears to have been made therefor. Br The Codbt. Filed March 20, 1905. A true copy.
