Excerpt: . . . operate the electronic networks that handle all information on transactions for cardholders and merchants. American Express and Discover market their credit card business to consumers and potential merchants in the United States. Both companies issue cards to individuals, and American Express also issues cards to businesses. In addition, American Express has arrangements in some overseas markets to license foreign banks to issue its cards and acquire merchants. As of December 31, 2001, American Express had arrangements with 74 institutions located in 77 countries other than the United States. Both federal and state laws apply to Internet gambling in the United States. The Legal Framework States. In general, gambling is a matter of state law, with each state for Internet Gambling determining whether individuals can gamble within its borders and whether gaming businesses can legally operate there. Since Internet Gambling typically occurs through interstate or international means, with a Web site located in one...

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
