Comingo, D. D., Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Steubenville, Ohio: Containing His Twenty-Fifth Anniversary Discourse, Proceeding of the Anniversary Meeting, His Two Sermons, Delivered November 24th, Funeral Discourse I remember the days of old, I meditate on all Thy works; I muse on the work of Thy Hands. - Psalm 143: v. 5. One much given to solemn reflection, has said with striking emphasis: - Tis greatly wise to talk with our past hours, And ask them what report they bore to Heaven. Israel was commanded to remember all the way in which the Lord their God had led them. Even a slight acquaintance with the mental habits of the Psalmist will show that he found both a favorite and profitable study, in the records of the past. Hear some of the many utterances of the inspired Lyrist: I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times; I call to remembrance, my song in the night. I will remember the years of the right hand...
