Lively road; when the conductor shouts All aboard! you can hear him to the next station. Every train lamp shines like a headlight. Stop-over checks given on all through tickets; passenger can drop of the train as often as he likes, do the stations two or three days, and hop on the next revival train that comes thundering along. Good, whole-souled, companionable conductors; ain t any road in the country where the passengers feel more at home. No passes; every passenger pays full traffic rates for his ticket. Wesleyanhouse air-brakes on all trains, too; pretty safe road, but I didn t ride over it yesterday. Maybe you went to the Congregational church? I said. Popular road, said the brakeman; an old road, too; one of the very oldest in...
